From the Dean

By the time all of you read this we will have launched another academic year at YSN. At the moment, though, I'm still reflecting on the year which just whizzed by! It was the year of the "nursing shortage" — a year marked by the scarcity of a commodity known as nursing care. Of course, as we approach a new year, that commodity is still scarce but it's becoming old news. For a year filled with shortages, scarcity, and general "woe is me" and "gloom and doom" YSN fared very well!

The President of the University, Benno Schmidt, officially approved a twenty million dollar incentive on behalf of the School. Vernon Loucks, CEO of the Baxter-Travenol Co. and member of the Yale Corporation, has agreed to head up this effort. We received a major scholarship grant from the Independence Foundation which will allow us to improve student aid packages for the next three years. Sandy Bialos '71 was elected Chair of the Association of Yale Alumni (the first woman and first nurse). The faculty received dramatic and well-deserved increments in their salaries. And, two of our students, Julie Cristol and Barbara Shaw, now recent graduates, received special recognition from Secretary Bowen of HHS for their proposal "Bridges" which described a health promotion intervention for adolescents and elders. Among daily accomplishments of our faculty: clinics for the homeless, work on the New Haven AIDS Commission and the Commission on Infant Mortality, funded research projects dealing with a variety of clinical phenomena, and exquisite practice and teaching.

For us, this year of the shortage has been a year of visibility — hard won but made easier by the national concern about the future availability of nursing care. It has not been an easy year for any of us. It's hard work turning a national crisis into windows of opportunity. In retrospect, though, the fruits of our labor — and labor we did — look plenty. As we wrap up another Alumnae/i College and Commencement issue of the Yale Nurse I am reminded that our harvest multiplies each year. I don't know whether you would wish to be thought of as fruits or laborers but I am grateful for your abundant support and collective wisdom as we move the School forward toward the twenty-first century.

— Judy Krauss

Commencement 1988

On one perfect day, Monday, May 30, the class of 1988 celebrated the completion of their years of hard work at YSN!! The gathering of the Graduate Schools on Cross Campus followed by the traditional march to the Old Campus was relaxed, festive and impressive – as always.

The School of Nursing ceremony and reception was held at the Yale Golf Course – a breezy and elegant setting in which to “top off” the day. The dean’s parting words, awards for distinction, and awarding of diplomas and certificates gave everyone a feeling of completion and new challenge!

Banner Bearer, Tom Alm leads the nurses to the Old Campus.

Academic Award Recipients

The Milton and Anne Sidney Prize awarded to the student whose thesis best exemplifies the School's commitment to clinical research and its mission to contribute to better health care for people through systematic study of the nature and effect of nursing practice:

Mari Catherine Sullivan Community Health Nursing Program

Her thesis drew upon her experience in third world countries as well as those at YSN. Prior to coming to YSN, she spent five years in the Peace Corps in Nepal working on community health and education projects.

The Annie W. Goodrich Award for Excellence in teaching:

Jan Davis presents AWG Award to Donna Diers.

Jan Davis, secretary of the graduating class presented the award citing Donna's "inspiration to all who are exposed to her teaching, speaking with a passionate conviction about nursing's role in shaping the health care system".

The Charles King, Jr. Prize awarded for outstanding intellectual and clinical progress:

*Helen Mahoney-West
Pediatric Nursing Program*

Prior to coming to YSN, Helen worked at the Shriner's Burn Institute in Boston as a recreational therapist, teacher and nursing assistant.

The Dorothy and Charles King, Jr. Prize: awarded for outstanding and inspirational performance:

*Jane Z. Reardon
Medical-Surgical Nursing Program*

Jane was a seasoned nurse, author and instructor in medical-surgical nursing before coming to YSN. Her interest and work in pulmonary nursing led her to enter the medical-surgical nursing program at YSN.

Alumnae/i Weekend

Panelists for the Thursday evening forum "Nursing: The Discipline that Cares. What is it? How is it changing?" led the audience in a lively discussion of the meaning and use of the word "caring". They are, left to right:

Catherine Forrest '71, Tina DiMaggio '47, Helen Burst '63, Judy Krauss '70, Anne Ryle '33, Ed Branson '80, Priscilla Kissick '56.

Alumnae/i College

A full day's program on Friday began with greetings from Yale President Benno Schmidt, from Dean Judy Krauss and Bea Burns, president of YUSNAA, followed by the keynote address by Ada Sue Hinshaw '63, Director, National Center for Nursing Research, NIH.

Ada Sue Hinshaw

Madelon Baranoski '74

On Saturday morning Jill Strawn '77 discussed the challenging and awesome problems of the AIDS patients, and how the community and health care givers are addressing them.

Workshops on the "Midlife Menopause Study" presented by Mary Ellen Rousseau, "The Adult Nurse Practitioner" by Nina Adams '77, and a Medical School Faculty Seminar on "Managing the Medical Industrial Complex" followed.

FRIDAY EVENING BANQUET

Reports from the reuning classes indicated that all those who returned to YSN were happy they came, happy to meet their friends and happy to feel part of YSN once again.

Two of the three living members of the class of 1928 (their 60 anniversary) sent letters and greetings – and portions of these descriptive and detailed letters will be included in the next issue of the Yale Nurse.

Members of 50 year reunion class received corsages. Dorothy Krinsky Stein gets "pinned" by Mary Bast '85, chairman of Alumnae/i Weekend.

ALUMNAE AWARDS

The presentation of the Outstanding and Distinguished Alumna Awards culminated the festive evening.

Sally Beth Solomon

"Although she is young in years and in nursing, her contributions to the field are already superior and nationally recognized.

She has been active in nursing politics since her days at YSN, when she organized fellow students and lobbied for Nurse Training Act Funds.

After honing her clinical and teaching skills in New Mexico and New Jersey, she moved into the national political arena as the Director of Research and Policy for the National League for Nursing.

She continues to touch the lives of nurses as Associate Dean of Students at Columbia University while pursuing a PhD degree in public health and political science.

Truly a rising star of superior intellect, clinical wisdom and political talent, it is a special privilege for the Yale School of Nursing and her Alumnae/i Association to present an Outstanding Alumna Award to Sally Beth Solomon, Class of 1980."

Mary Jane Kennedy

"Nursing service administrator, volunteer fund raiser, and Yale Nurse of the first order, she gives new meaning to dedication, loyalty and energy. As Chairperson of the Nursing School Alumnae/i Fund since 1980, she has been instrumental in raising over half a million dollars for the school. More important, however, is her ability to generate ever increasing interest and participation in support of the Yale School of Nursing in a passionate, persistent, tactful and gracious way.

Her enthusiasm for the School is further exemplified by her involvement in teaching, participation in Alumnae/i functions and her continued efforts to keep in touch with her own classmates as friend and agent.

It is with great pleasure and deep appreciation that Yale School of Nursing and her Alumnae/i Association present a Distinguished Alumna Award to Mary Jane Kennedy, Class of 1968."

Josephine Beljan Lutz

"She can be defined as an outstanding researcher; an honorable accomplishment regarding her work about and for women in the area of osteoporosis. She has been described as "wonder woman," receiving that award after returning to college when her 6 children were raised, earning a master's degree in biochemistry, another master's degree in nursing, and then a doctorate in nutritional sciences. But most importantly, she is described as a nurse. Blending her remarkable energy and commitment, important research in the health promotion of women, teaching skills, and her personhood, she has successfully combined within herself the art of nursing with the skills and knowledge of nursing.

In recognition of her outstanding career as a nurse wonder-woman, the Yale School of Nursing and her Alumnae/i Association are honored to present this award to a distinguished Yale nurse, Dr. Josephine Beljan Lutz, Class of 1946W."

Elaine McEwan Carty

"This nurse's motto must surely be 'Change WILL come - slowly!' She has been in the forefront of the campaign for legalizing nurse midwifery in Canada for twenty years! She has been a determined, persistent, enthusiastic leader in making the case for change, and for educating a new generation of nurses through her roles as a teacher, practitioner and researcher.

She gained the acceptance and respect of the obstetric and gynecological physician community - the first nurse ever to address them at a forum on the changing nature of practice - winning support for the concept of nurse midwifery practice and demonstrating its efficiency. She has had the stamina and courage to face up to overwhelming odds in order to see her goal, the establishment of nurse midwifery in Canada, achieved. Through her tireless efforts and patient manner, she has, indeed, achieved this goal!

The Yale School of Nursing and her Alumnae/i Association are proud to present a Distinguished Alumna Award to Elaine McEwan Carty, Class of 1968."

Alumnae/i Weekend Tapes Available

Couldn't get to Alumnae/i Weekend? Wish you could have heard Ada Sue Hinshaw's keynote address? Because we know many of you can't come to New Haven, we recorded the sessions on Friday, June 10th and are offering them to alums for $5.00 each.

Tape #1: Ada Sue Hinshaw, MSN, '63, Ph.D., R.N., FAAN
Director, National Center for Nursing Research, NIH

In her address, "Practices and Research – The Future of Nursing", Ada Sue Hinshaw speaks of the needs to identify the major phenomenon of our discipline and to predict future directions to develop knowledge, and discusses funding priorities for the National Center for Nursing Research.

Tape #2: Marjorie Funk, MSN '84
*Assistant Professor of Nursing, YSN;
 Clinical Nurse Specialist,
 Cardiac Surgical Nursing, YNHH*

"Predisposing Factors to Lower Limb Ischemia in Patients Treated with the Intraaortic Balloon" will interest any clinician concerned with enhancing the human side of technological intervention. A skilled presenter, Marge caught the attention and interest of the entire audience.

Tape #3: Madelon Visintainer Baronoski, MSN, '74, Ph.D.
*Associate Professor of Nursing;
 Chair, Pediatric Nursing Program, YSN*

In her study, "Recovery from Trauma: The process and outcome" Madelon questions the widely accepted view that children, unlike adults, are unharmed psychologically by unexpected injuries. As usual, her presentation and the data are fascinating.

Tape #4: Judy Krauss, MSN, '70
Dean, YSN
Patricia Gibbons, MS
*Vice President for Nursing
 Yale New Haven Hospital*

"The State of the School" and the "State of the Hospital" report on new directions at YSN and YNHH. Judy speaks about the new capital initiative and the support of Yale President Benno Schmidt as well as the School's plans for an increased focus on geriatric nursing. Trish Gibbons discusses the changes she's making in nursing at YNHH which she hopes will become a "magnet hospital".

Faculty Notes

Madelon Visintainer Baronoski '74, Ph.D., Chm. of Pediatric Nursing Program, was the Keynote Speaker at the celebration of 1988 National Nurse Day at the Yale New Haven Medical Center in May. She talked on "Caring: Nursing's Legacy and Future". Madelon had a son, Jacob, in January 1988.

Virginia Henderson, was presented a special Honorary Award by the ANA at the Convention in June in Louisville. "Miss Henderson is, indeed, the world's most beloved nurse. Recognizing her during our celebration of caring is most fitting".

Debra Podrasky '87, and Kathleen Flynn, Associate Professor, Med-Surg Program, co-authored an article "Topical sugar for healing: Kitchen magic or science", which was published in Ostomy/Wound Management 18, Spring, 1988.

Dorothy Sexton, Associate Professor and Chm. Med-Surg Program, and Barbara Munro, former Chm. Research program, prepared an article "Living with chronic illness: The experience of women with COPD" which was published in the Western Journal of Nursing Research 10, (1), 1988.

Gail Simonson, lecturer, Med-Surg program, wrote an article "Caring for patients with acute myelocytic leukemia" which was published in the American Journal of Nursing, March, 1988.

An individual class list of addresses, phones and jobs can be prepared easily in the Alumnae/i Office on the Computer. If you wish to have one, please write to Mary Colwell in the YSN Alumnae/i Office and enclose a check for $3.00 made out to Y.U.S.N.A.A.

A complete directory of all alums is being planned for this next year – you'll be hearing more later.

The School of Nursing has three representatives who attend the Spring and Fall Assemblies of the Association of Yale Alumni (AYA). One person is appointed by our Board each year for a three year term. Lois Crum '56, Andree deLisser '79 and Dottie Needham '74 have represented us this year at the Assemblies held in October and April. Dottie Needham '74 rotates off this year and Betty Ann Countryman '44 has accepted the appointment to be our third rep for the next three years. Dottie Needham was nominated to become a member of the Board of Governors of AYA and was elected in April! Another former YSN representative was Sandra Bialos '71 who has also been an AYA Board Member, and this Spring she was elected to be the President of the Board of Governors! so the School of Nursing is very visible in Yale University.

A special thanks was extended to Elizabeth "Boots" Day '52, who has helped Mary Colwell in the Alumnae/i office this Spring in preparing for this Alumnae/i Weekend.

Mary Jane Kennedy, Chairperson of the YSN Alumnae/i Fund, reported on the returns to date for this year. We have not yet reached our goal of $150,000, but "there's still time!" Our percentage of donors is down this year - even though our agents have worked very hard. This lower number of contributors is not peculiar to our school - it is the same everywhere. Mary Jane expressed gratitude to all who have contributed time and money to the Fund this year.

The 1988 REUNION SCHOLARSHIP FUND report was presented by Catherine Forrest '71, Chairperson of the B & E Committee.

With a grand start in January, to date over $45,000 has been raised from the 11 classes who held their reunions in June 1988. This is the first of a five year effort to establish five endowed scholarships (one each year in 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992) as Reunion Class gifts.

It takes $50,000 to endow a scholarship which generates approximately $2,500 per year in gift aid, in perpetuity. Contributions and pledges of all sizes to this named fund can be made at anytime and we are looking forward to raising the necessary balance from the members of the 1988 Reunion Classes.

In the Fall, the 1989 Reunion Scholarship Fund will be kicked-off and alumnae and alumni from these classes will have the opportunity to contribute to their fund for the Yale School of Nursing.

Inquiries to this program can be made to Ms. Catherine Forrest, Chairman, Nursing School Alumni Fund Bequest & Endowment Program, P.O. Box 1890, New Haven, Connecticut 06508.

THE REVA RUBIN FUND will pay for a year's subscription to the New York Times. The fund, established by Reva Rubin from proceeds of her book, Maternal Identity and Maternal Experience, is used "to improve the civility of the School". Past purchases and projects from this Fund include a microwave oven, a computer printer and student lounge renovations.

AYA Assembly XXXII

April 21-23, 1988

By Lois Dodd Crum '56

The Association of Yale Alumni convened in New Haven to explore and enjoy "the Arts at Yale".

The program started with tours of Yale and New Haven Arts Facilities including the collection of Musical Instruments, the Newbury Organ, the Center for British Art and the theater district of New Haven. After an AYA orientation session for new members, there was the performance of a scene and an excellent panel discussion on Training in the Performing Arts.

The ten candidates for the AYA Board of Governors were introduced, YSN's Dottie Needham '74 being one of them. Dottie was one of the winners — so congratulations to her! We're so pleased that she will continue to be a part of AYA.

The University information Sessions followed with a choice of attending: 1. Alcohol and the Yale Undergraduate. 2. Yale's Minority Commitment: Success or Failure? 3. The arts at Yale: Impact on New Haven. I attended the Alcohol and the Yale Undergraduate session. It was disturbing but interesting, stressing the need for education and support — especially for freshman students.

After dinner, we attended the Yale Repertory performance of Eugene O'Neill's Long Day's Journey into Night. It was very well done. The next day there was an interesting panel discussion on the visual arts: The changing Challenge of Educating Artists and Architects. This was followed by AYA Club Committee Meetings and luncheon with students in the various colleges.

The afternoon provided an opportunity to participate in the arts — a choral rehearsal with Fenno Heath for all delegates who wanted to sing in that evening's program. Other delegates attended tours of the Yale and New Haven Arts Facilities. There was another session on Arts and Student Life. The panel here included alums who graduated in '36, '71, '77, and '85. It was an opportunity to see how Yale's education in the Arts could be put to use in the real world.

From the President

Dear Fellow Alums,

Following dinner, there was a masterful presentation by the Yale School of Music – selections from La Boheme.

On the final morning more working committee meetings were followed by a luncheon at which time President Benno Schmidt presented Yale medals to:

Henry P. Brightwell '35
Paul C. Lambert '50
Dorothy Miller
Ernest F. Stockwell, Jr. '45
and Ying Kai-Shi, '32 MA

The Arts at Yale are thriving!
This was a most enriching experience – a pleasure to attend!

Make check out to YUSNAA

It's hard to believe, heading into the "dog days" of August with its attending heat and humidity, that YSN will soon be welcoming the classes of '89, '90 and '91. Thinking of those brand-spankin' new students entering their classrooms for the first time wells-up memories of my own first two weeks at YSN; a period I benignly refer to as "bitter/sweet". Those two years flew by and my class of '79 joined the swelling ranks of the YSN Alumnae/i Association. Nearly ten years later hundreds more students have joined us. We alums are the "larger" Yale. We're in every state and many countries. We've made an impact upon nursing politics, practice and policy, and we've only just begun.

More locally, alums have been busy too. Reunion weekend in June was hugely successful. Our research theme was strongly kicked off by our keynote speaker, Ada Sue Hinshaw '63, director of the National Institute for Nursing Research. Presentations by Margie Funk '84 and Madelon Baronski '74 were exceptional. Kudos to our weekend chairperson, Mary Bast '85. She organized a program that will be difficult to equal.

However, we're going to try and have already begun planning next year's reunion weekend. The theme is GERONTOLOGY, and co chairmen are Jackie Rugg '84 and Nina Adams '77. Our keynote speaker will be Maggie Kuhn of the Gray Panthers, addressing the politics of aging. We're hoping to present a broad and far-reaching program in the two days, so if you have suggestions or expertise in any area of geriatrics, please offer.

In closing I'd like to thank you for your support of our Alumnae/i Association. We've received vast amounts of updates on personal and professional lives, scads of address changes and many strong recommendations for distinguished alumna/us awards. From your nominations this year we honored Josephine Lutz '46W, Mary Jane Kennedy '68 and Elaine Carty '68 with Distinguished Alumna Awards and Sally Solomon '80 with an outstanding Alumna Award (less than 10 years after graduating from YSN). Please keep those nominations coming. There is a nomination form in this issue of the Yale Nurse (inside back page).

This has been a valuable six years for me, first as Treasurer and then President of the Board. It's been an education...discovering YSN's part in the professional development of excellent nurses practicing excellent nursing. I will miss this when I leave office next June.

Warm regards!

NOMINATION FOR DISTINGUISHED/OUTSTANDING ALUMNAE/I AWARDS 1989

The tradition of honoring outstanding Alumnae/i was started at the time of the 50th Anniversary celebration in 1973. It is a very special opportunity to honor colleagues and classmates who have distinguished themselves with special talents and achievements. An Alumna/us who graduated less than 10 years ago will be considered for an "Outstanding Award". We again solicit your nominations of YSN alums who, you feel, should be recognized in this way. Those Alumnae/i who were suggested last year will be considered along with new ones submitted before March 1st. These awards will be presented during the Alumnae/i Weekend in June. The deadline for receipt of your nomination is March 1st. Please send them to the Alumnae/i Office at the above address.

Review the criteria below and provide as much specific information as possible to indicate the ways in which your nominee meets these criteria. You may wish to solicit help from your friends or colleagues. A Curriculum Vita would be helpful, if one is available. The committee will also seek additional information on nominees where necessary.

Criteria for eligibility for nomination:

Achievement and outstanding contributions to any of the following categories:

- Teaching and scholarship
- Clinical practice
- Leadership
- Research in clinical nursing
- Community/Society
- YSN growth and development

Explanation:

1. How is the achievement or contribution beyond the normal expectation of the activity or position?
2. How is the achievement or contribution unique and innovative having more than local impact?
3. Describe how the service to YSN/Community/Profession is continuous and sustaining?
4. How do the activities contribute to the development of new dimensions and directions in nursing?
